The second race went to Remorse, who was a 3 to 5 chance. He was heavily played, and he did not disappoint his backers. Blackburn was strongly played also. He was second and Mayor B, third. The latter was third choice, so the taient had the satisfaction of picking the race one, two, three.

Cunningham and other young men had been in the habit of visiting this woman, it is said, and always laughed at Duffy's protestations. So far as can be learned, Cunningham and a comrade were visiting her, when Duffy returned home, a little after midnight this morning. A quarrel followed, and it is stated that Duffy put the young men out of the house. They tried to return, and during the fracas which ensued Cunningham was shot.

The shooting occurred at Ninetyseventh street and Fort Hamilton avenue, about 1 o'clock this morning, in

"This is the house Frank Duffy built."

TALK OF THE TURF.

Looks Like a Resumption of Winter Racing on the Clifton Track.

JOCKEY M'GLONE RULED OFF.

Rumor that a Pool Bill Is to Be Presented to the New Jersey Legislature.

The gossips say that the visit of Brighton Beach and Clifton Jockey Clubs, to Guttenburg, yesterday, is full of significance. They declare that it means the early reopening of the Clifton track, and assert that Mr. Engeman came over to see if the matter of dates be arranged satisfactorily. Whether these things are true can only be conjectured. Mr. Engeman, when prospects for the resumption of racing at Clifton were very bright, but he did not care to discuss the object of his nature of the long and earnest talk he had with President Walbaum. The latter said that his talk with the President of the Clifton Jockey Club was on subject entirely foreign to racing. As a matter of fact, however, Mr. Engeman Skater Joe Donoghue Beats Time

No doubt dates can be castly arranged between the two associations. dealing fairly, and there is hardly any doubt but that, if Clifton resumes racing, the Hudson County Association will give up Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, which were the days originally held by Clitton before the Passaic County officials closed the track.

Mrs. Hayes was one of the first persons to appear in Part II. of the General Sessions Court this morning. It could be seen from the set expression of the poor little woman's face that she had made up her mind to face the worst. Her capacity for suffering had apparently been exhausted.

She left the court-room at 10,15 and walked slowly down the from starway and along centre street towards the Tombs's officer who had bulked back to the tieneral Sessions Building with Col. Hayes and the Tombs's officer who had him in charge.

County officials closed the track.
